VA Director invites the public to Commander's Day and Open House

BUFFALO – On Friday, September 27, at 9 a.m. in Freedom Hall, the annual Commander's Day and Open House will be held at VA Western New York Healthcare System's Buffalo site, 3495 Bailey Avenue. The event is open to the public includes facility updates and tours. Brian Stiller, VA Western New York Healthcare System Medical Center Director will be in attendance.

“VA Western New York Healthcare System is committed to providing the safe, high-quality care our Veterans have earned and deserve. We are eager to share information about our VA programs and services available to Veterans.” said Stiller.

The agenda will include updates from the Director about the variety of services available to Veterans of all eras. He will also address challenges faced in the last year with insulin pen misuse and review of medical records.

There will be an opportunity to ask questions and interact with VA program officials. For more information, contact Evangeline Conley, Public Affairs Officer at 862-8753.
